Volunteering is an integral part of all non profit organisations. By becoming a volunteer with Reclink Australia, you have a unique opportunity to make a significant contribution to people experiencing disadvantage. There are enormous benefits associated with volunteering, which include:

- Networking with a diverse range of people and organisations providing support for disadvantaged communities
- Helping people experiencing disadvantage access sport, recreation and arts opportunities
- Greater awareness of the complex needs for people experiencing disadvantage
- Professional development opportunities for people interested in working in the health sector

There are a number of volunteering opportunities available, which include:

- Fundraising;
- Facilitators for sport, recreation and arts program deliverables;
- Event coordination;
- Student placements;
- Corporate social responsibility opportunities;
- Office administration.

Should you require further information, please contact the Reclink Australia head office on (03) 9419 6672.
