Reclink Australia provides and promotes sports, recreation and arts activities for disadvantaged communities throughout Australia. We work in partnership with community support organisations to design and deliver activities that promote the opportunity for improved physical health, mental health and community inclusion.

Membership is $165 (incl. GST) per annum (per LGA) and the benefits of membership include:

- Accessing sport, recreation and art activities on weekdays
- Networking with other organisations supporting disadvantaged communities
- The opportunity to introduce new sport & art activities to your clients
- Assisting your clients to integrate into mainstream community activities through our activities
